CORRECTED AND VERIFIED	AWAITING VERIFICATION	AWAITING CLIENT	CONFIRMED ISSUES OPEN	POSSIBLE ISSUES TO REVIEW	REVIEWED — NOT AN ERROR

Every page of this report uses these same counts. Details: work log (Appendix A) and open items (Appendix B).

Effect of this month's bookkeeping work

Correcting a record makes the numbers accurate; it doesn't by itself earn or recover money. Only a correction a person made and a later QuickBooks sync confirms counts as "corrected and verified".

WORK COMPLETED AND VERIFIED	ITEMS	EFFECT ON THE REPORTED FIGURES
Duplicate expenses removed	1	Reported profit up $850.00; no cash recovered
Personal spending separated	1	Business expenses down $600.00
Transactions moved to the right category	1	Category totals accurate; total profit unchanged

None of this work moved or recovered actual money.

2 Profitability

WHAT HAPPENED Revenue was $75,075.00, up $2,241.00 from June; the month ended with a net profit of $22,019.00.

WHY IT MATTERS Sales grew but profit fell, so costs rose faster than revenue.

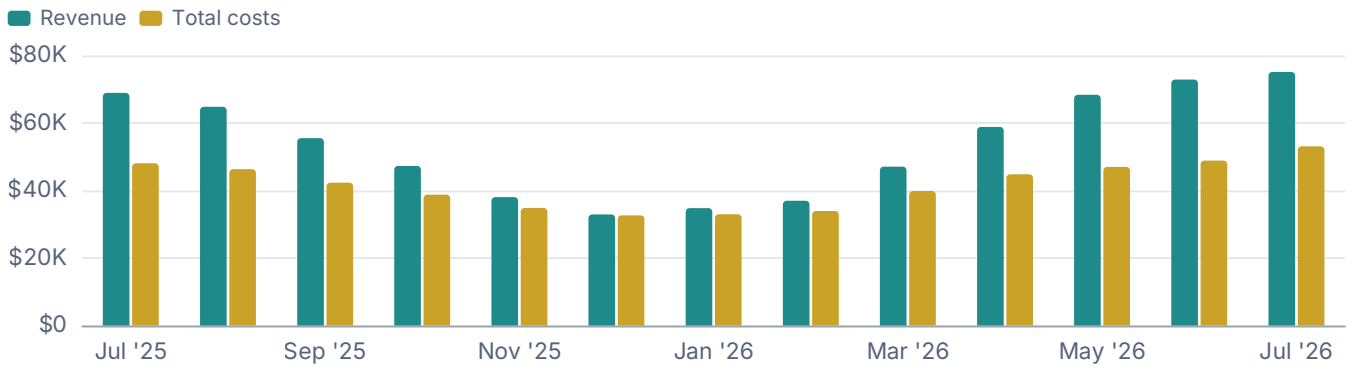

NEXT STEP Review the expense categories that changed most (below).

From sales to profit

Money in (sales)	+$75,075.00
Cost of goods sold	-$20,954.00
Costs of running the business	-$31,834.00
Other Income Credits were bigger than costs here, so this line added money.	+$42.00
Other costs (interest, fees)	-$310.00
= Money left over (profit)	$22,019.00

Each line is a QuickBooks total, and they add up exactly to the result.

Money in vs money out, month by month

Teal is money in (sales); gold is money out (costs). When gold is taller than teal, that month lost money. All loaded months shown.

WHY IT MATTERS	Profit and cash differ because of timing: sales not yet collected, bills not yet paid, loan payments, equipment purchases, and owner draws.

Bank balances

ACCOUNT	BALANCE
Business Checking	$38,412.55

Cash at end of period	$63,978.45

Cash movement comes from QuickBooks' Statement of Cash Flows for July 2026 — it differs from profit because of timing (receivables, payables) and non-operating items.
